

AGADIR FRENCH HIGH SCHOOL

Basic rules to remember

- Simple present :

"She likess, he thinkss that..."

- to go + to:

I want to go to London this Summer exceptions: to go on holiday, to go home...

- il y a

= there is - singular: "there is a dog in the garden"

= there are - plural: "there are dogs in the garden"

There are ≠ They are

- pour

= for + groupe nominal (nom, pronom...) "I have a present for you"

= to + verbe "I came to help you"

- no "s" for the plural of the adjectives

"there were different people there"

- to want ≠ will ≠ would Vouloir = to want (to)

ex: "I want to become a doctor"

Will : future: "I will be rich one day"

Would : conditional: " I would go on holiday if I had money"

- Modaux (must, can, could, will...) + Verb

"I must go to school"

"I can speak English"

"I could help you if you wanted"

Majuscule à tous les adjectifs de nationalité : Moroccan, British, French

- which / who which : thing/animal: "a text which was written by..."

who : a person : " this is the man who bought my car"

- to agree (& to disagree) like the other verbs

"I agree (dont' agree /disagree) with you"

I'm agree

say ≠ tell = say something ≠ tell someone

« S » à la fin du mot au pluriel sauf exception : children, men...

For = durée ≠ since = date

Whose + nom (pas d'article devant le nom)

Everyone / everybody = singulier = chaque personne ≠ people = pluriel

Other ≠ another

Dénombrable ≠ indénombrable (advice, news...)

Masculin ≠ féminin ≠ neutre (non humain)

L'adjectif est toujours devant le nom mais il est invariable.
